The mind sets in different directions
As a search for perfection
left all mute in segregation
any word ruins the inception
say and reflect your perseption
ignore all other medication

look at me! (Look at my eyes!)
look at me! (Look at my eyes!)
Look at this! (Nightmare eyes)
ook at me! (Look at my eyes!)
look at me! (Look at my eyes!)
Look at this! (Nightmare eyes)

As you wake up from sleep
you became another sheep
in the news, in the streets
how many weight you lift in your shoulder?
Unarchive the folder
Ruinned soldier

Look at me! (Look at my eyes!)
Look at me! (Look at my eyes!)
Look at this! (Nightmare eyes)
Look at me! (Look at my eyes!)
Look at me! (Look at my eyes!)
Look at this! (Nightmare eyes)

No one will remember your name
die with fame
or live being lame
no matter, you were always the same Same body, same mind, same eyes
No matter if anyone cries
Here lyies your lies

Look at me! (Look at my eyes!)
Look at me! (Look at my eyes!)
Look at this! (Nightmare eyes)
